Official Press Release

06/19/2008

On Tuesday morning at approximately 11:00 AM Sergeant James Gosselin was patrolling on the south side of town and located a vehicle that was associated with a missing person report. Upon closer inspection he discovered that the missing person was inside the vehicle, unconscious, and in need of emergency medical attention.

Sergeant Gosselin summoned Emergency Medical Services, forced entry into the vehicle and immediately began care. The patient subsequently regained consciousness and was transported by Hunter's Ambulance Services to the Hospital of Central Connecticut at New Britain General. The patient continues to recuperate and is expected to fully recover.
