The Berlin Police Department announces the promotions of three Officers to the ranks of Captain, Lieutenant and Sergeant. The promotions result from the recent retirement of Captain Ludwig Schubert Jr.

Captain Klett is a 20 year veteran of the department having served as a Patrol Officer, Patrol Sergeant, Support Services Sergeant, Operations Lieutenant and Support Services Lieutenant. He was a member of the underwater response team, honor guard commander, firearms and handgun retention instructor, and the department's accreditation manager for 10 years. He is a 1995 graduate of the 180th session of the FBI national academy. He will be taking the place of Captain Schubert as the department's second in command

Lieutenant Ciuci is a 14 year veteran of the department having served as a Patrol Officer, Patrol Sergeant, Detective Sergeant and Support Services Sergeant. He is currently the department accreditation manager and was responsible for creating and maintaining the department's web site www.berlinpd.org. He is also an assessor for the Commission on Accreditation for Law Enforcement Agencies (CALEA) and goes around the country assessing law enforcement agencies applying for accredited status.

Sergeant Ann-Marie Haas is a 7 ½ year veteran of the department having served as a Patrol Officer and Detective. Sergeant Haas is the first female Police Officer to achieve the rank of Sergeant with the Berlin Police Department. She will be assigned to the patrol division as a shift supervisor.

The Police Department will hold a short promotion ceremony on Tuesday February 26 at 6:00 p.m. The ceremony will be an opportunity for family and friends to join with the police department in recognizing three individuals who have earned rank at a higher position.
